HOUSTON ON THE WEB

Houston's athletics home page, featuring information on all 17 sports, can be found at UHCougars.com, the official website of the Houston Athletics Department.

The University of Houston women's basketball program turns the page on a new chapter as the 2025-26 season marks the beginning of the Matthew Mitchell era. The three-time SEC Coach of the Year brings a proven pedigree and a renewed vision for success as the Cougars look to reestablish themselves among the Big 12's elite.

Mitchell, who compiled more than 300 career wins and led Kentucky to multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, has spent the offseason building a foundation rooted in the winning tools of honesty, hard work and discipline. His arrival signals a fresh start for a Houston team eager to embrace a new identity and rise within one of the nation's most competitive conferences.

Houston enters the season with a revitalized roster, blending three returners with a wave of new talent from the transfer portal and high school ranks. Among the transfers are guards TK Pitts (SMU), Briana Peguero (Troy), Shun'teria Anumele (Saint Louis) and Kyndall Hunter (Texas A&M), and forwards Amirah Abdur-Rahim (Texas A&M), Amani Bartlett (LSU) and Jorynn Ross (Arizona). The Cougars also welcome three freshmen: forwards Jemma Hunter and Jade Jones, along with guard Kayla King.

Returning to the team are guards Kierra Merchant, Summer Bostock and Kateri Poole. Merchant returns as the only player to start every game last season, while Poole is expected to make her Cougar debut after missing last year due to a knee injury.

Houston opens the season Nov. 4 against UT Arlington inside the Fertitta Center, where fans will get their first look at the Cougars' new era.

RENU KHATOR

Chancellor, University of Houston System

President, University of Houston

Renu Khator holds the dual titles of chancellor of the University of Houston System and president of the University of Houston. The first female chancellor in the state of Texas and the first Indian immigrant to head a comprehensive research university in the United States, she assumed her post in January 2008.

As chancellor of the UH System, Khator oversees a four-university organization that serves nearly 74,000 students, and has an annual budget that exceeds $1.8 billion. As president of the University of Houston, she is the chief executive officer of the largest and oldest of the four UH System universities. As the system's flagship institution, UH enrolls approximately 46,000 students, offers 275 undergraduate and graduate programs and awards more than 11,000 degrees each year.

Khator has overseen the growth of the campus to nearly 600 acres, including the Technology Bridge site, and over 300 acres for the UH at Sugar Land and UH at Katy instructional sites. A $1.9 billion construction program added and renovated numerous facilities, including the 40,000-seat TDECU football stadium, the Student Center, two Health and Biomedical Sciences buildings, five multi-story parking garages, the 78-acre Technology Bridge research park and an unparalleled expansion of residence halls to accommodate 8,000-plus students – among the largest in the state.

That unprecedented success is part of a string of similar achievements, including earned Tier One status — the Carnegie Foundation's top category of research universities — the opening of Houston's first medical school in nearly 50 years, being awarded a Phi Beta Kappa honor society chapter, more than tripling the number of National Academy members on the faculty, dramatically improving the graduation rates and the launch of a bold strategic plan to become a top 50 public university.

Khator was born in Uttar Pradesh, India, earning a bachelor's degree at the University of Kanpur. She received her master's degree in political science and Ph.D. in political science and public administration from Purdue University. A noted scholar in the field of global environmental policy, she has published numerous books and articles on the subject. Prior to her appointment, she was provost and senior vice president at the University of South Florida, capping a 22-year career at that institution.

She was a member of the Indian Prime Minister's Empowered Expert Committee, charged with selecting India's 20 world-class "Institutes of Eminence," the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Academic Advisory Council and chair of the American Council on Education (ACE) and the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. She is a current member of the Association of Governing Boards of Colleges and Universities Council of Presidents, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Texas Medical Center CEO Forum and on the Board of Directors for the Greater Houston Partnership.

She was elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2020. She has been inducted into the Texas Women's Hall of Fame, and has received the Council of Fellows/Fidelity Investments Mentor Award from the American Council on Education (ACE), the Excellence in Leadership Award from the U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, and the President of the Year Award from the Association of College Unions International. In 2023, she was awarded the Houston Business Journal's Women Who Mean Business Award, an Honor Award from the Association of Indians in America and named a Global Education and Institutional Leadership Honoree by the World Affairs Council of Greater Houston.

Khator received the Pravasi Bharatiya Samman Award from the president of India, the highest recognition conferred on non-resident Indians based on their "significant contributions" to their homeland.

Purdue University awarded her with the Doctor of Social Sciences degree, honoris causa, and Swansea University with the Doctor of Letters, honoris causa.

Khator's husband, Dr. Suresh Khator, is associate dean of the UH Cullen College of Engineering. They have two daughters, both of whom are ophthalmologists, and three grandchildren.

EDDIE NUÑEZ

Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics

Eddie Nuñez was named Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Houston on Aug. 17, 2024, joining the Cougars after successfully holding leadership positions at the University of New Mexico and LSU.

Prior to Houston, Nuñez served as Vice President/Director of Athletics at New Mexico dating to Aug. 31, 2017. During his tenure at UNM, Nuñez oversaw significant success both on and off the field. Under his leadership, the Lobos secured 53 NCAA Tournament appearances, 22 Mountain West Conference titles, and numerous academic accolades, including leading the Mountain West in academic honors. He also spearheaded the development of the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center and restructured key partnerships to ensure the long-term financial success of UNM Athletics.

In his seven years in the AD's chair, Nuñez presided over plenty of success stories, starting with a National Championship in Cross Country in 2017. The 455 All-Conference performers included 49 conference Athletes of the Year and 17 conference Coach of the Year awards. Academically, UNM's 1,517 Mountain West All-Academic selections and 1,142 Mountain West Scholar-Athletes are the highest total among all Mountain West schools over that time frame.

For his work throughout the 2020-21 season, Nuñez became just the third person in the history of the Mountain West to be honored with the Commissioner's Award, becoming the first recipient in 14 years.

The 2017-18, his first at New Mexico, saw the department win its third NCAA title in the long rich history of UNM athletics as the women's cross country team won its second title in three seasons. The department also saw 14 top-five GPAs spread out amongst its programs, and UNM's first-ever individual national champion in women's cross country.

He led the restructuring of the Lobo Club to streamline, align and enhance the fundraising efforts towards UNM athletics. This new restructuring was instrumental in improving donations, increasing Lobo Club membership, improving customer service and reestablishing trust with donors and supporters. These efforts helped increase funding for the mental health and wellness of our student-athletes and established three new endowments for the long-term success of the athletic department and the support of student-athletes, including specific endowments for men's basketball and football. During Nunez's tenure, the Lobo Club Champions Council continued to grow in members and in financial support.

Nuñez has played an important role nationally as a leader in the field of college athletics. In January of 2021, he was appointed to the LEAD1 Executive Committee and Board of Directors, an organization that represents the athletics directors, programs and student-athletes of the 130 member universities of the Football Bowl Subdivision.

He also served on the Executive Board for the New Mexico Bowl and served on a variety of committees with the Mountain West, including serving on the Mountain West Executive Board.

For 14 years, starting in 2003, Nuñez served in a variety of high-level administrative capacities at LSU, one of the nation's top athletic departments. He also served as the department's liaison with LSU Sports Properties, the Tiger Athletic Foundation and University Licensing and Brand Management.

While he held seven positions and titles at LSU, the department continually flourished. Under his guidance, LSU experienced of $400 million in facility renovations and construction, and Nuñez led the renegotiations of a 10-year multi-media rights agreement with Outfront Media Sports.

Additionally, he oversaw planning and management of the LSU Athletics Strategic Plan, Marketing and Promotions, Athletic Communications, Social and Digital Media, Creative Services, Video/ Network Broadcast Services and all capital projects.

While he made his mark collegiately at LSU, Nuñez began his career as a collegiate administrator at Vanderbilt University, where he was the Director of Game and Event Management where he also assisted in construction and planning of numerous facility upgrades.

A former college athlete, Nuñez played four years of basketball, starting at Miami-Dade Community College before transferring to the University of Florida, playing for Billy Donovan. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant under Donovan at Florida before being named an administrative assistant at Marquette in the men's basketball program.

A native of Miami, Florida, Nuñez received his Associate Degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College, his Bachelor's Degree in Sports Management and Master's Degree in Sports Administration from the University of Florida. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple are proud parents of two daughters, Elizabeth and Ann.

With more than 500 student organizations and 16 intercollegiate sports teams, life at UH is active and lively. About 8,000 students live on campus in residence halls, apartments and townhouses.

UH alumni total 224,000. Of that number, 63 percent live in the Houston area and 75 percent live in the state of Texas.

The University of Houston is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award baccalaureate, master's, professional and doctoral degrees.

In addition, the University is a member of the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States, the Conference of Southern Graduate Schools, the National Commission on Accrediting, the Association of Texas Colleges and Universities, the American Council on Education, the Association of American State Colleges and Universities, the Association of American Colleges, the Association of Urban Universities, and the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges. UH colleges, programs and professional associations also hold memberships and accreditations by additional agencies.

When the Carnegie Foundation elevated the University of Houston to Tier One status in 2011, the designation made the university one of only three public Tier One research universities in the state of Texas, along with the University of Texas and Texas A&M.

The University of Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs began play in a new game arena during the 2018-19 season when the Fertitta Center officially opened with a men's basketball 65-61 win over No. 18/21 Oregon on Dec. 1, 2018, in front of a sellout crowd of 7,039. With the completion of the 2016-17 season, Hofheinz Pavilion underwent a $60 million renovation. The renovation was made possible through a generous $20 million donation from University of System Board of Regents Chairman Tilman J. Fertitta and his family in late August 2016.

The facility features a premium club area and a courtside club. The reconfigured bowl moved move mid-court seating locations closer to game action with floorlevel seating opposite the team benches for UH students.
Renovations included a new audio system, sports lighting and video boards as well as new concession stands and expanded restrooms. The facility's exterior also was refreshed.

Prominent to the center's exterior, the renovation will preserve the legacy of the Hofheinz family and its contributions to both UH and the city of Houston. UH will transform an area adjacent to the new facility into Hofheinz Plaza, where fans will be greeted by a bronze statue of former Harris County Judge Roy Hofheinz.

The University of Houston will request that city officials rename a portion of Holman Street in front of the arena after the Hofheinz family. In addition, Roy Hofheinz's records will be permanently archived and publicly accessible as a special collection in the UH library and the Alumni Center will house an area describing the lives and public service of Roy and Irene Hofheinz.

"This gift is personal. It represents a commitment from my family and me to support the University of Houston in its quest to strengthen our nationally competitive institution both in academics and athletics," Fertitta said. "Upgrading our athletics facilities shows we are serious about competing at the highest levels of collegiate sports for many years to come. I'm proud of where the University of Houston is today and I'm proud to make this investment in my university's future."

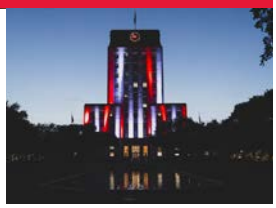
FOURTH LARGEST CITY IN NATION • VOTED BEST CITY IN AMERICA



The style-savvy residents of the country's fourth-largest city and third-largest county (Harris) know that there's no place quite like Houston.

With more than 2.2 million residents, the city attracts visitors and transplants with a wonderful mix of world-class arts, booming business, pro and college sports and award-winning cuisine.

As the rest of the country discovers what locals have known all along, Houston is finally enjoying the recognition it deserves. Just last year, the city landed on several "best of" lists, including the Travel + Leisure roundup of America's Favorite Cities and the Hotwire.com index of most affordable U.S. vacation destinations.

See for yourself, here in Houston, where much of daily life happens outdoors, thanks to mild, year-round temperatures. Take time to explore the eclectic, culture-filled neighborhoods, gallery spaces and attractions, which offer diverse flavors that can only be found here.

Take the food, for example. Countless cutting-edge chefs have made a home in Houston, where diners eat out more than residents of any other city. Here, you'll find James Beard Award winners and internationally renowned chefs serving up innovative cuisine that frequently catches the attention of foodies in Bon Appetit, Food & Wine and Saveur.

Venture Downtown during your stay and discover a thriving professional arts scene with professional resident companies in ballet, opera, symphony and theater; only four other U.S. cities can say the same. And the nearby Museum District stakes its claim as the country's fourth largest, with 18 cultural powerhouses set within blocks of one another.

We have our own version of Central Park, too, offering nearly 1,500 acres of green space in the heart of the city. Just inside "the loop," Memorial Park is home to a public golf course, swimming pool, tennis courts, trails and more. Downtown, Discovery Green park is outfitted with WiFi, a farmers market, dog runs, fine dining and ice-skating during the winter—just one more of the 650-plus urban green spaces filling the city.

Not surprisingly, businesses also recognize the allure of Houston's offerings. Twenty-five companies on the Fortune 500 list call the Energy Capital of the World home. Aeronautic research is unsurpassed at NASA headquarters—the facility responsible for putting the first man on the moon—and Texas Medical Center remains the largest in the world with 47 highly lauded research and treatment institutions.

Come. Live like a local for a few days and discover why Houston's mix of international appeal and Southern charm have captured the imagination of tastemakers the world over.

The Big 12 Conference is comprised of 16 institutions for the second consecutive fall. The league has grown from 10 members to 16 with the addition of eight schools in the last two years. Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado and Utah joined BYU, Houston, Cincinnati and UCF as new members in the last two years. The eight new members joined Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, TCU, Texas Tech, and West Virginia.

The Big 12 enters its 30th year as one of the nation's premier conferences in college athletics under the leadership of Commissioner Brett Yormark. Since joining the Conference in August 2022, Yormark has elevated the Big 12 to new heights, emphasizing marketing, brand building and instilling an innovative strategy that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

The Big 12 began play in 1996 and is the home of 91 team NCAA national championships, and 775 individual national champions. The Big 12 Conference office is located in Irving, Texas.

The 2024-25 Big 12 women's basketball season marked the first time the Conference has had at least five teams finish the season ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll in consecutive seasons since 2010 (2008-10). The league has sent multiple teams to the Sweet 16 in four of the last five NCAA tournaments and has had at least two teams in the regional semifinals in 22 of the last 25 tournaments, tied for the second-highest percentage (88%) of any league during that span.

In the first year of his tenure, Yormark executed a media rights deal with ESPN and Fox that will run through 2030-31 while leading a revamp of the Big 12 Football and Basketball Championships that resulted in revenue and digital engagement highs. He has taken an innovative approach to ensure the Conference resides in places it has never been before including creating the first Big 12 Business Advisory Board. Other highlights are executing a partnership with Microsoft and PayPal where Big 12 schools will use PayPal to modernize the distribution of institutional payments from universities to student-athletes in a new revenue-sharing model.

Houston Women's Basketball faced a tough challenge during the 2024-25 season with three student-athletes ruled out for the year due to injuries, leaving the Cougars with just nine eligible players for the season. However, the Cougars returned a familiar face as guard Laila Blair announced her decision to return for her final season of eligibility.

Houston earned its first win of the season, 54-52, against HCU with a pair of last second free throws from guard Leilani Augmon.

With only seven available players, Houston outlasted Southeastern Louisiana, 70-65, for its third victory of the season.

The Cougars posted a dominant 98-40 victory over Mississippi Valley State on Education Day. All seven available players scored for Houston, including five in double-figures. Kierra Merchant had a career afternoon with 30 points, including six 3-pointers.

Houston faced a tough opening stretch during Big 12 action but were able to pull a 79-76 upset against #24/rv Oklahoma State. The victory marked Houston's first against a ranked opponent since a 71-69 win at No. 24/21 South Florida on Feb. 12, 2023, and the first at Fertitta Center since a 67-49 win over No. 13/13 South Florida on Feb. 27, 2021.

During her final season with the Cougars, Blair finished as the second leading scorer in program history at 1,975 points and set three program records. She is the all-time leader in 3-pointers (255), minutes played (4,360) and most games started (127). She ranked second in games played with 145 and fourth in assists at 386.

On March 6, 2025, Ronald Hughey stepped down as the head coach of the women's basketball program after 11 seasons.

Matthew Mitchell was named the eighth head coach in University of Houston Women's Basketball history, Vice President for Athletics Eddie Nuñez announced on March 27, marking the start of a new era for the Cougars.

Matthew Mitchell, three-time SEC Coach of the Year who boasts 30 years of coaching experience, was named the eighth head coach in University of Women's Basketball history on March 27, 2025.

Mitchell comes to the University of Houston after coaching from 2007-20 at Kentucky, where he led the Wildcats to 10 20+ win seasons and seven 25+ win seasons. His resume includes nine NCAA tournament appearances, three runs to the Elite Eight and five trips to the Sweet Sixteen. Mitchell remains the winningest head coach in program history with 303 career wins at the helm of the Wildcats.

Mitchell is a program changer, turning a Kentucky squad that went 16–16 overall, 5–9 in conference play in his second year at the helm to a 28–8 overall record in 2009–10 – earning SEC Coach of the Year for captaining the turnaround. The Cats' 28 win total, including 11 SEC wins, were school records and UK finished second in the league despite being tabbed 11th in the preseason polls.

In his fourth season at Kentucky, Mitchell once again led the Wildcats to an outstanding season with a 25–9 overall record and a school-record-tying 11 wins (11–5) in the SEC. UK took a second-place finish in the league standings for the second-consecutive year and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament as the No. 4 seed.

During the 2011-12 season, Mitchell guided Kentucky to its first SEC regular-season championship in more than 30 years and was named SEC Coach of the Year by the media as the Wildcats advanced to the Elite Eight.

Under Mitchell's leadership at Kentucky, he coached five SEC Player of the Year selections, 21 All-SEC honorees and produced six WNBA draft picks, including Rhyne Howard, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2022 WNBA Draft.

Mitchell's players also excelled in the classroom with 42 SEC Academic Honor Roll members and 100 percent of Mitchell's players receiving their degrees. His squads secured team GPA's of 3.0 or better for 12 straight semesters.

In his first head coaching role, Mitchell revived a declining Morehead State women's basketball program with a 30-29 record (.508) – the third-highest winning percentage in school history. The Lady Eagles came off a 5-22 record a year prior to Mitchell's arrival and earned a 16-13 overall mark and 11-9 league record in his first season. The Lady Eagles also reached the semifinals of the OVC Tournament.

The Louisville, Miss., native began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tennessee under Hall of Fame Coach Pat Summitt during the Lady Vols' run to the Final Four in 2000. Tennessee advanced to the national championship game before losing to top-ranked UConn. The Lady Vols finished No. 2 in the national polls with a 33-4 overall record and a 13-1 mark in the SEC.

Prior to his stint at Tennessee, Mitchell spent one year in Yazoo City, Miss., as a coach and teacher at Manchester Academy. He taught American history and served as both the boys' and girls' head basketball coach.

A 1995 graduate of Mississippi State, Mitchell's first head-coaching experience came in 1996 at Central Holmes Academy High School in Lexington, Miss. Mitchell performed multiple duties at the school, including head coach of both basketball teams as well as the track and golf teams. He also served as the defensive coordinator for the football team.

Mitchell is married to Jenna Ramsey Mitchell of Amelia Island, Fla., and has three daughters, Lacy (Mitchell) Arant, of Madison, Miss., Saylor Mitchell and Presley Mitchell. The Mitchells are grandparents to Crews, Mamie and Vivian Arant.

TEXAS A&M (2009)

Damitria Buchanan was named the Associate Head Coach of the University of Houston Women's Basketball program in April 2025.

Buchanan is the recruiting coordinator for the Cougars while also mentoring the post players and handling opponent scouting.

Buchanan brings more than a decade of coaching and recruiting experience, most recently spending four seasons at Auburn and previously at Kansas, Texas Tech and Stephen F. Austin.

Buchanan served on Auburn's staff from 2021 to 2025, where she was promoted to associate head coach in May 2022 and assumed the title of offensive coordinator ahead of the 2023-24 season. During her first two seasons, Buchanan served as the Tigers' recruiting coordinator and helped land a consensus top-25 class in her first season.

In her third season, she helped lead Auburn to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2019, guiding the Tigers to a 20-win season and a .500 SEC record – both firsts since 2019.

Year two saw Auburn make its first postseason appearance in four years, advancing to the second round of the WNIT. The Tigers finished 16-15 overall, the first winning season since 2018-19.

During her first season, the Tigers doubled their win total from the previous season and picked up three victories over top-25 opponents, including a 71-61 victory over No. 4 Tennessee.

Buchanan is no stranger to the Big 12 Conference as she spent six seasons at Kansas from 2015 to 2021, where she oversaw the day-to-day recruiting operations as recruiting coordinator for Head Coach Brandon Schneider. She helped assemble the 2019 signing class ranked No. 31 nationally by Dan Olson Collegiate Girls Report – the third-highest ranking among Big 12 programs.

In 2017-18, she helped Kansas sign its second five-star recruit in four seasons with the addition of Brooklyn Mitchell.

Before Kansas, she spent the 2013-15 seasons at Texas Tech, where she mentored the frontcourt and assisted with scouting, recruiting and academics. She played a key role in helping the Lady Raiders land one of their top recruiting classes in 2014.

Buchanan began her collegiate coaching career at Stephen F. Austin under Schneider. She mentored Porsha Roberts to multiple All-Southland Conference honors, including Freshman of the Year and second-team all-conference as a sophomore.

In 2011-12, Buchanan helped guide the Ladyjacks to a 23-win season and a Southland Conference Tournament Championship. The 11 win-improvement from the previous year tied for the sixth-largest turnaround in the nation.

Buchanan played at Texas A&M, where she helped lead the Aggies to three Big 12 Conference titles and four top-25 finishes, including top-10 finishes in each of her final three seasons. She was a two-time All-Big 12 First Team selection and team captain as a senior.

The Houston native is a two-time graduate from Texas A&M where she earned her bachelors of psychology in 2009 and her masters in counseling in 2011.

Fun fact: She is a clasically trained pianist and was the salutatorian at her high school.

Chandi Jones, who closed out her collegiate career in 2004, is heralded as one of the best basketball players ever, male or female, to attend the University of Houston.

The 5-10 guard from Bay City, Texas, led the Cougars onto the national stage during her four-year career.

She was named Conference USA's Female Athlete of the Decade in 2005, and was also named the league's basketball player of the decade and earned a slot on the C-USA All-Decade Team.

She was a 2004 Kodak All-American, the first in school history, as well as a three-time C-USA Player of the Year (2002, 2003, 2004). She earned First-Team All C-USA honors in each of her four seasons and is UH and C-USA's all-time leading scorer with 2,692 points. That mark ranks her 21st on the NCAA career scoring list.

She became C-USA's all-time scoring leader on Feb. 15, 2004, while leading Houston to a 73-65 victory at East Carolina. She finished the game with 21 points to surpass the previous record held by Tamika Whitmore, who bucketed 2,488 points in 120 games for the Memphis Tigers from 1996-99.

Jones ranks third all-time in UH basketball scoring history, behind only Elvin Hayes (2,884 points) and Otis Birdsong (2,832 points).

She won the national scoring title in 2003, averaging 27.5 points per game. Her career average of 23.6 points per game is a C-USA record.

Jones reached double figures in a then-NCAA record 114-straight games, scoring in double digits in every game she played for UH. The previous record for double-digit scoring games was 92, set by former NCAA Player of the Year Jackie Stiles of Missouri State.

She reached the 2,000-point plateau in just 84 games, the third-fastest player in NCAA history to do so. Only Lynette Woods of Kansas (70) and Stiles (83) did it faster.

Jones tore her ACL with nine games remaining in the 2001 season, but still was the nation and C-USA's leading freshman scorer, averaging 21.5 points per game.

Following her return to form in 2002, Jones was named National Comeback Player of the Year by the Women's Basketball News Service.

Jones led UH to a nearly 70-percent winning percentage, as Houston was 88-38 (.698) during her career. She led UH to the 2004 C-USA Regular Season and Tournament Titles, both firsts for the Cougars. She earned MVP honors at the 2004 C-USA Championship.

Her jersey was retired on Feb. 5, 2005, the first such honor for a UH women's player. Jones' number 13 hangs in the rafters of Hofheinz Pavilion along with some of the great names in college basketball history including: Hayes, Birdsong, Clyde Drexler, Hakeem Olajuwon and former UH coach Guy V. Lewis.

At the close of her career, she became the first UH women's player to be selected in the first round of the 2004 WNBA draft. Jones was chosen eighth overall by the Phoenix Mercury and later traded to the Detroit Shock. Jones played two seasons for the Minnesota Lynx before playing overseas in several different countries.

Jones was inducted into the Houston Hall of Honor on Nov. 4, 2010.
